State Boards Ruled Against.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL Springfield, Ill., Oct. 6.-Attorney General H. J. Hamila has rendered to Auditor of blic Accounts J. S McCull ion as requested on the question which in-volves the general status of the special at-torneys for Illinois boards and commissions. The Attorney General holds that the Highor's boards and commissions have no jetal right or authority to appoint special attorneys; that the law business of the State is fixed with the Attorney General and the States Attorneys in the different counties. Mr. Hamiin holds, however, that the ap-pointment of an attorney for the insurance pointment of an attorney for the insurance department by the insurance superintendent si lawful, and the Auditor should issue a warrant for his salary, special authority for the appointment of this attorney having been given by the Legislature. This is the only exception, Mr. Hamlin advises the Auditor, and declares in effect that all other attorneys have been acting without color of title, and should not receive money from the State treasury.

Under the terms of this opinion the Secund's close friend. Fred H. Rowe, challman of the Republican State Committee, will continue to draw his $4,000 per assum as attorney for the insurance superints and the secundary of the insurance superints and the secundary of the insurance superints and the secundary for the secundary f will continue to draw his $4.000 per samual as attorney for the insurance superintendent. Colonel John Lynch, J. H. Danskin and a score of lawyers who have been selected by Governor Tates and appointed to piaces on various boards and commissions. Will have to look elsewhere for sinecures. It is believed that the Governor's faction, or a representative of it, will appeal to the Supreme Court. The most probable form is a mandamus on Auditor McCullough to compel him to issue a warrant on the Treasurer for the salary of J. H. Danskin, attorney for the Railroad and Warehouse Commission.
